Links to those Linked Web Sites should not be construed as any endorsement, approval, recommendation, or preference by us of the owners or operators of the Sites, or for any information, products or services referred to on those Other Web Sites.

Unless stated otherwise on this Web Site, we have:

no relationship with the owners or operators of those Linked Web Sites;

no control over or rights in those Linked Web Sites.

COOKIES

“Cookies” are a standard for storing small pieces of data on a web client (ie. the web browser on your computer). Any Web server (including this one) may store one or more cookies in your browser or request your browser to transmit the data to the Web server.

This Web Site may store cookies on your Web client in order to better serve you upon your subsequent visits to this Web Site. By using cookies, Web sites can track information about visitors' usage of the site, provide customised content, or even the use of password protection. Note that some browsers can be configured to allow cookies to be accessed by servers other than the originating server.

Please note that most Web browsers can also be configured to notify the user when a cookie is received, allowing you to either accept or reject it.

CODE OF CONDUCT

CODE OF CONDUCT – ADMINISTRATORS

- Involve young people in planning, leadership, evaluation and decision making related to the activity.
 - Give all young people equal opportunities to participate.
 - Create pathways for young people to participate in sport not just as a player but as a coach, umpire, administrator etc.
 - Ensure that rules, equipment, length of games and training schedules are modified to suit the age, ability and maturity level of young players.
 - Provide quality supervision and instruction for junior players.
 - Remember that young people participate for their enjoyment and benefit. Do not overemphasise awards.
 - Help coaches and officials highlight appropriate behaviour and skill development, and help improve the standards of coaching and officiating.
 - Ensure that everyone involved in junior sport emphasises fair play, and not winning at all costs.
 - Give a Code of Conduct sheet to spectators, officials, parents, coaches, players and the media, and encourage them to follow it.
- Remember, you set an example. Your behaviour and comments should be positive and supportive.
 - Support implementation of the National Junior Sport Policy.
 - Make it clear that abusing young people in any way is unacceptable and will result in disciplinary action.
 - Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
 - Compliment and encourage all participants.
 - Be consistent, objective and courteous when making decisions.
 - Condemn unsporting behaviour and promote respect for all opponents.
 - Emphasise the spirit of the game rather than errors.
 - Be a good sport, actions speak louder than words.
 - Do not interfere with the progress and/or conduct of a game, unless called to do so by another official.
 - Abide by Official's decisions.
